ME AND MY STUDIES 😊

I just finished my degree on Design and New Creative Technologies at the Universitat Politècnica de València with a grade of 9,3 out of 10. My inqnetude for the arts has allowed me to explore many fields in the creative world, from graphic design to web programming, illustration and, of course, animation. I'm a daring person, that learns fast, with great lidership skills and used to teamwork. One of my main features is the huge variety of styles I manage, what makes me expand knowledge on my own every time I have the opportunity.

I had the chance of also studying animation in one of the best Universities on the United Kingdom, University for the Creative Arts, in Farnham, for three months, thanks to an Erasmus scholarship. There I learned traditional animation as well as stop-motion and some 3D (maya).

I finished a 20 hours course organised by the UPV Animation Master where Coke Riobóo (Goya winner in 2006 for Best Animated Short Film) taught us to animate plasticine over glass.

I also participated on an other 20 hours UPV course in which Carla Pereira showed us how to make and animate our own puppet.

I did the Inspira Character Animation course (238 hours), where I stood out for the quality of my work, speed and personality.

Recently finished Joanna Quin's workshop (20 hours) at UPV.
